

DIVINE MERCY PARISH
SOCIAL CONCERNS COMMITTEE
CAMPUS MINISTRY SPONSORSHIP

Description

The Social Concerns Committee of Divine Mercy Parish has set up a fund assisting college students who are members of a campus ministry program or extracurricular activity. The fund is set up to assist the student with expenses related to the service trip they are participating in. The service trip must meet the requirements below.

Requirements

- The applicant must be a registered member of Divine Mercy Parish
- The service trip must be associated with the college or university attended by the applicant
- The applicant must be a student in good standing at their respective college or university
- Documentation from the college/university of the applicant's participation in the community service project
- Supporting documentation from school for related expenses
- 250 word essay explaining your desire to participate in the project
- Sponsorship Application Deadline is January 30th

Sponsorship Award

Sponsorship amounts of up to $500 will be awarded to selected applicants. The total amount awarded will be contingent on the need and number of applicants.

Application Procedure

Applicants must submit the application along with required supporting documentation to the Divine Mercy Parish Office by the application deadline. Selected applicants will be notified in February.
